RBI guidelines for public sector banks

541. SHRI ABANI ROY: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Reserve Bank of India has taken a tough decision on ever-greening of loans by banks and financial institutions;

(b) if so, the details of guidelines issued to various banks and financial institutions in this regard;

(c) whether various public sector banks and financial institutions are flouting the guidelines of the Reserve Bank of India and sanctioning loans, etc.;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) the other steps Government propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that in pursuance of the recommendation of the Committee on Banking Sector Reforms (Narasimham Committee), the Bank have advised all commercial banks in October, 1998 reiterating that they should adhere to the prudential norms on asset classification, provisioning etc. and avoid the practice of ever-greening i.e. making fresh advances to their troubled constitutents only with a view to settling interest dues and avoiding classification of the loans in question as NPAs. RBI has further advised that
